- ✓ Good readers read the TITLE and AUTHOR, open their SCHEMA, and make a PREDICTION:

I predict that: Someone names a Bee Royal because of the title and the Bee will make him rich because of the name and he will be able to go to school.

- Who is the important CHARACTER that you learn about on the first page of the story?

Main Character = Song-ho
What do you learn about this character in the story?

- he can't go to school.
- he lives in a small hut.
- Doesn't have much food.

Draw a picture of the main character.

- Why do you think that sangmins were not allowed to go to school? What are you INFERRING?

I'm inferring that: They have to pay to go school.

- Who do you think will win the Royal Bee? Explain your THINKING.

I think that Song-ho will win the Royal Bee because:

he is very smart & in his school.

What is the author's message at the end of The Royal Bee? What do Frances and Ginger Park want us to learn from Song-ho?

I think that the author is trying to tell us that if your poor you can still win and not to treat people differently.
